

In the previous video, we completed the verifications for the embedded plates under the given loads. In this video, we will be utilizing Peikko designer and comparing the hand calculations with the software-generated results.

The wall thickness is 400mm made of C30/37 concrete class. The loads applied to the plate are given in design format (Ed), as shown in the figure. Dimensions are provided in mm.

